

The Complete Lyrics and Libretto of the Broadway Musical "Hamilton"

Scene 1

Aaron Burr:How does a bastard, orphan, son of a whore And a Scotsman, dropped in the middle of a forgotten spot In the Caribbean, by providence, impoverished, in squalor Grow up to be a hero and a scholar?

Chorus:The ten-dollar Founding Father without a father Got a lot farther by working a lot harder By being a lot smarter By being a self-starter By fourteen, they placed him in charge of a trading charter

Aaron Burr:And every day while slaves were being slaughtered and carted Away across the Atlantic Our man was studying like crazy Every day while somebody else was buying and selling shares He was learning how to fence, shoot, and ride horses Leaving every other boy in his wake We all fought with him Me, I died everyday while fighting for him Me, I read every book for him I cannot imagine that man without me
