Ormond Beach is a charming coastal city located in Volusia County, Florida. With its pristine beaches, historic landmarks, and vibrant community, Ormond Beach offers something for everyone.

A Rich History

Ormond Beach has a rich history dating back to the 16th century. The area was first inhabited by the Timucuan Indians, who were followed by Spanish explorers in the 17th century. In the 19th century, the area became a popular destination for wealthy Northerners who built grand winter homes along the beach.

One of the most notable landmarks in Ormond Beach is the Ormond Beach Pier, which was built in 1890. The pier is a popular spot for fishing, surfing, and sightseeing. It is also home to the Ormond Beach Historical Museum, which houses a collection of artifacts and exhibits that tell the story of the city's past.

Beaches

Ormond Beach is known for its beautiful beaches. The city has seven miles of sandy shoreline, perfect for swimming, sunbathing, and surfing. The beaches are also home to a variety of marine life, including sea turtles, dolphins, and manatees.

In addition to its beaches, Ormond Beach also has a number of parks and nature preserves. The Tomoka State Park is a 2,000-acre park located on the Tomoka River. The park is home to a variety of plant and animal life, including alligators, deer, and bald eagles.

Community

Ormond Beach is a close-knit community with a strong sense of pride. The city hosts a variety of events throughout the year, including the Ormond Beach MainStreet Art Festival, the Ormond Beach Oktoberfest, and the Ormond Beach Christmas Parade.

Ormond Beach is also home to a number of cultural attractions, including the Ormond Beach Performing Arts Center and the Ormond Beach Museum of Art. The city is also home to a number of restaurants, shops, and boutiques.

Ormond Beach is a unique and charming city with something to offer everyone. Whether you are looking for a relaxing beach vacation, a historic getaway, or a vibrant community to call home, Ormond Beach is the perfect place for you.
